

Virginia Adult Educator Certification Program for Instructors and Program Managers NOVA VAILL 2009

The Office of Adult Education and Literacy of the Virginia Department of Education, the Virginia Adult Learning Resource Center, and Fairfax County Adult Education are pleased to present the Northern Virginia Institute for Lifelong Learning (NOVA-VAILL) conference. This year, the conference will consist of two Level 1 sessions of the Virginia Adult Educator Certification Program (VAECP) for Instructors and Program Managers:

Framework: Fields of Adult Education and ESOL, Second Language Acquisition, Content Standards, and Assessment

Resources: Curricula, Textbook Evaluation, Distance Learning, Other Technology-supported Learning

These sessions will contribute to level certification in this newly implemented state-wide certification program. Professionals from across Virginia will gather to network, share ideas, and get the most up-to-date information on working with adult learners and managing adult education programs.

For more information on the VAECP, visit <http://www.valrc.org/trainings/certify.html>.
