

4.10 Health Literacy Consortia in the U.S.: Models for Regional Collaboration

Health literacy stakeholders in many regions of the U.S. are forming interdisciplinary collaboratives to work together on health literacy issues. Here are some examples that could serve as models for a Virginia consortium. Some of these, such as Health Literacy Wisconsin and the Minnesota Health Literacy Partnership, actively include adult education programs among their members.

- Arizona Health Literacy Coalition
- Arizona Health Literacy Collaborative
- Florida Health Literacy Initiative
- Health Literacy Iowa
- Health Literacy Kentucky
- Central Mass Health Literacy
- Minnesota Health Literacy Partnership
- Health Literacy Missouri
- New Jersey Health Literacy Coalition
- Health Literacy Nebraska
- NYC Health Literacy Campaign / Literacy Assistance Center Health Literacy
- North Carolina Health Literacy Council
- North Carolina Program on Health Literacy
- Collaborative for Clear Health Communication \(Ohio\)
- Rhode Island Health Literacy Partnership
- San Antonio Health Literacy Initiative
- Health Literacy Wisconsin

