

5.8 Immigrants and Health Care Reform

This section contains links in plain language that give general information on health care reform and some that report specifically on implications of health care reform for immigrants.

- Foundation for Health Coverage Education
The foundation’s mission is “to simplify public and private health insurance eligibility information in order to help more people to access coverage.” This website is visually simple and user-friendly. It has a simple tool to help identify one’s coverage options under the Affordable Care Act.
- HealthCare.gov
This site is the federal government’s plain language site that outlines changes set forth by the Affordable Care Act, with a timeline. It has a tool to identify coverage options. This very helpful website is easy to navigate and fairly clear for native English speakers.
- Kaiser Family Foundation: Commission on Medicaid and the Uninsured
The Commission publishes informative reports on issues relating to immigrants, health coverage, and health care reform.
 - Overview of Health Coverage for Individuals with Limited English Proficiency
 - Connecting Eligible Immigrant Families to Health Coverage and Care: Key Lessons from Outreach and Enrollment Workers
 - Key Facts on Health Coverage for Low-income Immigrants Today and Under the Affordable Care Act
- Kaiser Family Foundation: Health Reform
This website provides extensive information in easy-to-use formats on different aspects of health care reform.
- Kaiser Family Foundation: State Exchange Profiles: Virginia
This site tracks decisions and activities of the different states as they come into compliance with the Affordable Care Act.

- National Council of La Raza: Health Care Reform
A major organization supporting Hispanic immigrants to the U.S. explains health care reform in the articles collected on this site.
- National Immigration Law Center: Immigrants and the Affordable Care Act
This fact sheet explains how immigrants with legal and illegal status will be impacted by the ACA.

